

6516206355.txt

Please do not limit access to local content via satellite radio. Is it not the way of an open and competitive market place to allow the consumer a choice. I have elected to 'purchase' access to commercial free music, news and now local content as opposed to listening to the endless rants and self promotion of my local stations.